

THE CLONMEL STEAM-SHIP.

This vessel arrived in port yesterday afternoon, having been absent from Sydney twenty-one days. She has succeeded admirably, all the passengers by her expressing themselves in the highest terms of her efficiency in every respect. She will return to Port Phillip in a few days, and it is hoped that such arrangements have now been made that there will be no more delay for want of fuel. We have great pleasure in laying before our readers the following documents, which shew the estimation in which a numerous body of passengers hold the Clonmel, and also that the urbanity of Captain Tollervey is justly appreciated.

To Lieut. Tollervey, R.N., Commander of the Steam-Ship Clonmel.

DEAR SIR,—The first voyage of the Clonmel from Sydney to Port Phillip being an event of much public importance, we, the undersigned, passengers on the occasion, beg to tender to you our sincere congratulations on our safe arrival at the latter port.

We have at the same time unfeigned pleasure in thus recording our grateful acknowledgment for your considerate and gentlemanly attention to our comfort on board. The excellent attendance, sumptuous table, and cleanly comfortable bedding, probably not surpassed in any similar establishment in Great Britain, evince a desire to render the Clonmel in every respect worthy of public support.

With every good wish for your prosperity and happiness, we remain,

Dear Sir,
Yours very sincerely,

J. Mackay,	J. Roach,
James M'Farlane,	Arch. M'Cullum,
James Bewicke,	Sam. Rawson, 28th Rgt.,
H. H. Jones,	James M'Pherson Grant,
Henry Harper,	Alexander Campbell,
Edward W. Jeffreys,	Benjamin Shain,
G. A. Urquhart,	Daniel Curdie,
F. Ellard,	M. Ryan,
Richard Capel,	J. B. James,
R. Webb,	F. Ellard, Jun.,

R. Webb,                      F. Ellard, Jun.,
M. Gautrot.
Port Phillip, 5th Dec., 1840.